Cyclades Islands

Sample Itinerary For A
14-Night Greece Charter

Cyclades

Sample Itinerary

Day One

Lavrion

Lavrion, the gateway to the Cyclades islands, is located on the southern tip of mainland Greece, just a 45-minute drive from Athens International Airport. Consider taking a taxi into Athens (less than an hour away) to explore some of the city's historic sights.

Day Two

Vourkari, Kea Island to Kea Bay (100 m)

Kea Bay (100m from Vourkari) Vourkari, located on the northern side of Kea Island, offers a charming and tranquil stop on your sailing journey. This quaint fishing village, well-protected from the Meltemi wind, features a harbor filled with small fishing boats, giving it an authentic and picturesque atmosphere. The island is renowned for its excellent local restaurants, where you can savor fresh fish, lobster, and other traditional dishes.

Day Three

Kea to Andros (32 NM)

Andros is renowned for having some of the most beautiful beaches in the Cyclades, making it a must-visit for swimming, snorkeling, and sunbathing enthusiasts. The island's natural beauty is truly captivating, with stunning beaches complemented by scenic nature walks and breathtaking views.

This stop offers the perfect opportunity to enjoy dinner and drinks onboard while soaking in the spectacular sunset.

Day Four

Andros to Mykonos Town, Mykonos

(42 NM)

On day four, enjoy a long, relaxing sail from Andros to Mykonos. Mykonos is arguably the most famous of the Cyclades islands, renowned for its glamour, stunning beaches, and vibrant summer party atmosphere. Take your time on this journey, as you'll have a full day on land the next day to explore and experience all that Mykonos has to offer.

Day Five

Full Day in Mykonos

Situated in the heart of the Cyclades, Mykonos offers something for everyone. Enjoy golden beaches, diving, windsurfing, and endless nightlife options for those seeking excitement. Little Venice is a must-visit spot for beautiful waterfront dining, offering stunning sunset views.

Take your time to explore the island, relax on the beaches, and indulge in the vibrant culture and cuisine that Mykonos is famous for.

Day Six

Mykonos to Paros, Naoussa Bay

(20 NM)

After the excitement and vibrancy of Mykonos, it's time to return to the peaceful side of your sailing holiday with a visit to Naoussa Bay on the island of Paros. Here, you can immerse yourself in nature with beautiful walking trails, enjoy the quaint tavernas, and visit the lighthouse for incredible views.

Naoussa Bay is famous for its traditional Greek way of life, offering a perfect opportunity to experience a bit of old Greece.

Day Eight

Ios to Santorini

(28 NM)

It's time to embark on a slightly longer sail south to the iconic island of Santorini, also known as 'Thira.' This Cycladic gem is renowned for its postcard-perfect whitewashed buildings with blue roofs and breathtaking cliff-top views across the volcanic caldera towards the northern Cyclades islands.

Day Seven

Paros, Naoussa Bay to Ios

(25 NM)

Ios will be a standout stop for your entire group! Known for its excellent food, historic sites, hiking trails, and amazing views, Ios has something for everyone. Hike up (or take a taxi) to the town of Chora for dinner.

Perched on a hilltop high above the main town of Ios, Chora offers the perfect vantage point to gaze across the entire Cyclades islands while enjoying a meal at one of the many charming small restaurants.

Day Nine

Full day in Santorini

Spend the day exploring the iconic hills of Santorini! Start with a visit to the picturesque villages of Oia and Fira, where you can admire the stunning whitewashed buildings and winding streets. Enjoy shopping and indulge in a wine tasting tour at one of the island's renowned vineyards.

Discover the island's rich history with a visit to the ancient ruins of Akrotiri and the Archaeological Museum of Thera. For more of an adventure, consider renting a four-wheeler to explore the island's hidden gems and breathtaking landscapes. Cap off your day with dinner on a candlelit terrace, savoring local cuisine while watching a spectacular sunset over the sea to the west of Thira.

Day Ten

Santorini to Ios (28 NM)

Santorini is the furthest south of the Cyclades islands, so from here you'll need to retrace your path a bit and head back north to the island of Ios. Ios offers a wide range of activities, from windsurfing to exploring historic architecture, ensuring there's something for everyone.

If you missed visiting Chora on your last visit, take a 10-minute taxi ride up there for dinner - the view alone makes it worth the trip!

Day Eleven

Ios to Naxos (22 NM)

The largest island of the Cyclades, Naxos has an incredible amount to offer! The whitewashed village is nestled into the lush green hillside and is teeming with restaurants, tavernas, shops, and museums. Once you've had your fill of the stunning beach, there's plenty to do onshore to keep you entertained.

Day Twelve

Naxos to Syros (30 NM)

Syros offers more than just stunning beauty; it boasts a vibrant culture and a rich history of art. Visitors should take time to explore the museums and galleries in Ermoupolis, the island's capital.

In addition to its cultural attractions, Syros features beautiful beaches, intriguing caves, and charming winding streets. Known for its family-friendly beaches and tranquil nights, Syros provides a wonderful contrast to the bustling atmospheres of Mykonos and Ios.

Day Thirteen

Syros to Kythnos, Fikiadha Bay (35 NM)

Your final stop before returning to Lavrion will be the picturesque anchorage of Fikiadha Bay on the island of Kythnos. This bay, divided by a sandy spit, offers an excellent spot for protected swimming in the shallow waters and for taking the dinghy out for sundowners on the beach.

Prepare dinner onboard and enjoy the stunning sunset in this beautiful bay, making for a perfect end to your island-hopping adventure.

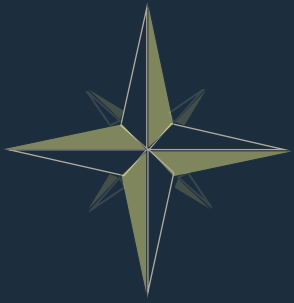

Day Fourteen

Kythnos to Lavrion (44 NM)

It's time to return your yacht to base and sail back to Lavrion. Take this opportunity to stop at Cape Sounion Bay (just south of Lavrion) and spend your final afternoon hiking up to the ancient Temple of Poseidon, which sits impressively on the hill above the bay.

Alternatively, make the most of your time onboard by enjoying the sheltered bay with sunbathing and paddleboarding before making the final 1-hour sail north to Lavrion. Once back at the marina, take some time to prepare for your departure the next day. End your journey with a delightful dinner at a traditional Greek taverna in Lavrion.

Caribbean

Sample Itinerary

Day One

Dutch St. Maarten

Upon arriving at the international airport on the Dutch side of St. Maarten, a short taxi ride brings you to your luxurious yacht. After a warm welcome, the crew will provide a safety briefing and a tour to help you settle in. Savor a light lunch onboard as you begin to unwind.

As the sun sets, enjoy a peaceful night at anchor. The gentle sway of the yacht ensures a tranquil evening, preparing you for the adventures ahead.

Day Two

Dutch St. Maarten to Anguilla (16NM)

Start your morning with breakfast on board as you set sail for Anguilla, a scenic 16 nautical miles away. Relax on the foredeck, soaking in the sun and refreshing trade winds as you round the tip of St. Maarten and approach the stunning island of Anguilla.

Upon arrival, your Captain will drop anchor, and you'll take a tender ashore for customs check-in. Once cleared, explore the island with a taxi tour, visiting historic rum distilleries, iconic resorts, or enjoying live jazz from local musicians.

In the afternoon, snorkel in crystal-clear waters or simply unwind onboard.

Day Three

Exploring Anguilla's Hidden Gems

Begin your day by setting fishing lines as you sail to Anguilla's nearby deserted islands—Dog Island, Prickly Pear, and Sandy Island—just a short 5-7 nautical mile journey. These pristine spots are perfect for snorkeling, offering crystal-clear waters and vibrant coral reefs teeming with marine life. After a leisurely lunch, relax on the beach or explore the rocky islands. This area is ideal for water sports like wakeboarding or paddleboarding.

As the day winds down, your Captain will sail to Crocus Bay, where you'll anchor for the night. Sip on cocktails as you enjoy a breathtaking sunset from the secluded beach.

Day Four

Anguilla to French St. Martin

(12NM)

Start your fourth morning with some relaxation at Maundays Bay or Rendezvous Bay on Anguilla's southern coast. After enjoying the sun and pristine beaches, set sail for Marigot on the French side of St. Martin.

Upon arrival, explore the vibrant street markets, offering local goods and unique souvenirs. You can also take a taxi to Paradise Peak for a hike with stunning island views, or visit historic Fort Louis, just a short walk from the marina.

Day Five

Tintamarre & Ile Fourchue

Begin your day in the picturesque French village of Grand Case, where you can enjoy an authentic French dinner and dance the night away at lively clubs along the streets.

The next morning, set sail for Tintamarre Island. Upon arrival, relax on the stunning beach and experience a natural mud bath, letting the sun dry the mud before rinsing off in the ocean. After a delightful lunch onboard, sail to Ile Fourchue, an extinct volcanic caldera, where more breathtaking adventures await.

Day Six

Ile Fourchue & St. Barts

Start your day with a swim or explore the unique landscape of Ile Fourchue, known for its black sand beach and arid terrain. This rocky, privately owned island feels otherworldly with its steep hills and craggy peaks, home to just a few goats.

Nearby, you'll find a top snorkeling and SCUBA diving site, teeming with diverse marine life, including eagle rays and vibrant coral. After underwater exploration, hike to the island's peak for stunning 360° views of the surrounding islands and your yacht anchored below.

Later, set sail for St. Barts, just 9 nautical miles away. Arrive in Gustavia, the capital, and spend the afternoon exploring this sophisticated port town, known for its French flair, luxury boutiques, and lively atmosphere.

Sample MENU

Herb-Crusted Rack Of Lamb

Prepared with local, fresh, and organic ingredients, we make sure to customize our menu based on your group's preferences and dietary needs, ensuring that everyone finds joy in the delicious dishes and drinks we offer.

From fresh Greek salads and aromatic Souvlaki to the delights of Caribbean Jerk Chicken and Coconut Shrimp, each bite will transport you to sun-soaked shores.

As the day winds down, we'll raise a glass of our signature cocktails, blending traditional Greek spirits with Caribbean flavors for a refreshing twist. Your culinary adventure aboard Athena Blu promises to celebrate local cuisine, whether we're in Greece or the Caribbean, we look forward to creating beautiful memories with you!
